Catalog Description

Practice and principles of fundamentals and stylistic characteristics common to ballet, jazz, and modern. (H) 3 credits

Fundamentals of Dance is designed to provide accessibility to the world of dance for all students - novice or pre-professional. Along with learning the principles of the dance techniques, you will discover the rich heritage, challenging discipline, diverse aesthetics, as well as your place in the vast spectrum of dance. There is truth in advertising – as once you are successful in this class, these fundamentals become the basis for achieving excellence in higher levels and making informed connections with how this art interacts with your life. The following objectives provide the direction for the course:

Objectives:

- To provide a student with the history, basic techniques, and contemporary references relevant to accessing a basic understanding of Contemporary Dance Practices, Contemporary Ballet Practices, and Contemporary African and African Diasporic Dance Practices.
- Enhance the mind/body connection through the application of sound biomechanical principles as they relate to dance, such as practicing proper alignment, learning basic human anatomy and learning of alternative approaches to movement study. This knowledge will be directly applied to the various styles of dance learned in class
- Practice elements of performing and explore performance quality, discovering your own potential and personal style while developing your kinesthetic memory
- Experience, discuss and write about live dance performances

Dance Etiquette and Attire:

Dance is an art and requires personal discipline and motivation. Respect for other students and the instructor is of the utmost importance. When in class you will be attentive and active. Be aware of the appropriate times to talk and/or sit.

- Attire should be form-fitting and appropriate for movement. Jazz shoes may be used on Zoom and socks in the studio.
- Hair needs to be pulled back neatly and away from face.
- No warmers unless they are form-fitting. All warmers should be removed following warm-up.
- Knee pads are encouraged.
- No oversized clothing.
- Your ankles should be visible.
- No large jewelry, including all non-stud earrings, necklaces & watches.
- No chewing gum.

Attendance Guide:

SOTD Dance Attendance:

Requirements for class attendance and make-up exams, assignments, and other work in this course are consistent with university policies.

- Mindful participation is the only way to meet the objectives of this course.
- Attendance, which is mandatory, means that when you enter the classroom or virtual space, you are present, alert, and contributing to the progress of the class every second.
- If you are not present when attendance is taken, or class begins please check in with the instructor.
- For extended health issues refer to the Injury and Illness Policy in the current SOTD Handbook \(SOTD website\)

Information on make-up work: Any make-up work requires proper and official documentation from professional sources and presented to the instructor in a timely fashion. To earn credit for an absence you must do two things:

- 1) Immediately after your return to class, turn in approved/legal documentation to instructor
- 2) Make-up the class with an approved assignment. All Make-up assignments for excused absences must be completed by the last day of classes of the semester.

Makeup classes for unexcused absences are not available.

Attendance Policy:

Participation is the only way to meet the objectives of this class. This requires you to be in class on time in the proper attire and with your attention focused on dance. Once in the studio, you should be warming up and stretching to prepare yourself for class.

For classes that meet two times a week:

- Students can take 2 absences with no documentation with no penalty.
- If the third absence is unexcused, it will result in 5% deduction from the final grade.
- Excused or unexcused, on the third absence, a meeting is required with the instructor and/or area faculty to assess the student's continued participation in the course.
- If the fourth absence and all subsequent absences are unexcused, each will result in an additional 5% deduction from the final grade.
- Requirements / opportunities to make up missed material is up to the instructor's discretion.

- Due to the participatory nature of the course that includes in-class collaboration along with partner and ensemble work, 4 unexcused absences may result in automatic failure of the course.

UF Absence Policy

<https://catalog.ufl.edu/UGRD/academic-regulations/attendance-policies/>

- Students are responsible for satisfying all academic objectives as defined by the instructor. Absences count from the first-class meeting.
- In general, acceptable reasons for absence from or failure to participate in class include illness, serious family emergencies, special curricular requirements (e.g., judging trips, field trips, professional conferences), military obligation, severe weather conditions, religious holidays, and participation in official university activities such as music performances, athletic competition, or debate. Absences from class for court-imposed legal obligations (e.g., jury duty or subpoena) must be excused. Other reasons also may be approved.
- You cannot participate in classes unless you are registered officially or approved to audit with evidence of having paid audit fees. The Office of the University Registrar provides official class rolls to instructors.
- If you do not participate in at least one of the first two class meetings of a course or laboratory in which you are registered, and you have not contacted the department to indicate your intent, you can be dropped from the course. You must not assume that you will be dropped, however.
- The university recognizes the right of the individual professor to make attendance mandatory. After due warning, professors can prohibit further attendance and subsequently assign a failing grade for excessive absences.

Student online evaluation process

Students are expected to provide feedback on the quality of instruction in this course by completing online evaluations at <https://evaluations.ufl.edu>. Evaluations are typically open during the last two or three weeks of the semester, but students will be given specific times when they are open. Summary results of these assessments are available to students at <https://evaluations.ufl.edu/results/>

Communication is especially important. Please come to me with all questions and concerns throughout the semester. You can make an appointment or talk to me immediately before or after class about your progress or if you have any questions. If questions pertain to the information in this syllabus, I ask that you read your syllabus thoroughly before asking an intelligent question on clarification. You are encouraged to ask questions during class and if you need or want more feedback from the instructor, please do not be afraid to ask. Remember, unless you communicate and come to me directly, I will assume that you are satisfied and happy. I want you to have a great dance experience.

ASSIGNMENT AND TESTS

Technical and Artistic Progression (100 points) An ongoing in-class observation primarily for checking our communication goals and your degree of successful effort. Absences could affect this grade.

Discussion Post (30 points each for 150 points): On the discussion board on Canvas, each week you will be given prompts that reference the readings for the modules. You will watch the video posted by the instructor on the discussion and then write an initial post based on the prompts. Your post should reflect your understanding of the concepts and terminology presented in the module. (minimum 100 words)

Discussion Response (10 points each for a total of 50 points) You will read and view all the discussion posts. You will reply to one post of your choice. In your response you need to reference statements made by your fellow student as well as compare and contrast to your own post Museum Paper (50 points) You will take a trip to the Harn Museum or The Museum of Natural History on Hull Rd. to find an inspirational exhibition for your midterm movement project. Submit a page description, including artist and title, (in Canvas) of the artwork or exhibition you are using for your choreographic inspiration. The choreography will be presented as part of your midterm evaluation.

In-class Project (Mid-term) (100 points) Based on discussions and related assignments, the instructor will inform the class of the details of this project, which will be worked on in-class. This project will provide you with the basics on how the class will proceed with the final project

Final Project (200 points) Each student will choose one of the dance techniques discussed in Modules 6 & 7 to create a movement study that will relate to the historical context of the selected technique. Submissions can be via video on the Discussion Board or presented live in-class. Each student must include at least a one-page reflection paper. Detailed instructions are on the Modules page.

From the above selection, the student may create a solo or work collaboratively to choreograph a 1.5 to 2-minute composition. It is up to you to choose your own group of dancers to work with. If you need assistance, let me know. There will be time in class available for working on projects, but also be prepared to meet outside of class if needed. The time spent in class working on your project is part of participation/attire and will affect your final grade. Absences are discouraged during this time and will affect your final project grade. If working with others, then this project is about everyone in the group. Work Together! Make sure you exchange contact information with other members in your group. Additional information will be provided in class. This is your final performance for this class. Costumes and/or props can be included (if needed). Have FUN and be creative. This is your opportunity.

Final Project Evaluation: In-class work – 50 points
 Choreography and performance elements – 50 points
 Written analysis – handed in at time of performance – 25 points
 Performance – 75 points

Final Project Reflection (150 points) Also, every dancer must hand in at least one page typed, double space journal on their final project experience. See the final project instructions for details.
