Course Description

MUH 2501 Introduction to World Musics – 3 Credits

Grading Scheme: Letter grade

Introduction to musics of non-western cultures; the nature of music and the realm of ethnomusicology.

(H and N) Attributes: General Education- Humanities, General Education – International

This course is a survey of musical traditions from around the globe with an emphasis on the social, political, and cultural contexts that make each tradition unique. It is also an exploration of how music, as a human phenomenon, may be used to express different ethnic, spiritual, economic, and political viewpoints. To this end, students will develop the vocabulary necessary for critically discussing the fundamental building blocks of music. Prior musical ability or knowledge is not required for this course.

Course Outcomes

In this course, you will learn to:

- Develop a conceptual understanding of different musical traditions from around the world.
- Develop the ability to identify and describe the basic stylistic elements that make each music unique.
- Develop basic familiarity with musical terminology and learn to use it to describe and discuss what you hear.

- Identify some of the cultural, social, and historical factors that have contributed to the formation of these musical styles.

Course Overview

Assignment Overview

- Plan on spending approximately 6 hours per week on the course materials.
- It is the student's responsibility to keep up with assignments each week.
- Each module has a textbook reading, discussion assignment, quiz, and short essay which correspond to various combinations of readings, listening examples, video examples, and other web resources.
- Learning Modules 3, 6, 8, and 10 each contain a unit test taken in class and is closed book.
- To ensure that everyone in the class stays on schedule, module assignments, tests, and quizzes will close the day after they are due. In general, quizzes are due Monday nights and essays are due Thursday nights. Quizzes are open book and may be taken from home.

In Class Discussions

Since this is a live course and in-class participation is mandatory, students are expected to come to class prepared and ready to participate in large and small group contexts. Class will include group listening, PowerPoint presentations to review material, and in-class activities. Presence in class is vital as lectures will at times include information not available in the textbook.

Essays

Essay assignments are located under the "Assignments" tab on the left side of the class website. Each essay assignment contains a writing prompt that asks you to reflect upon different aspects of the Module material. Each Essay will be submitted through Canvas, which uses Turn-It-In to verify originality and detect plagiarism.

- Any significant plagiarism beyond 20% (excluding questions and basic info) will result in re-writing the paper or receiving a zero on the assignment. UF is a "Research 1" University and takes academic scholarship seriously. This class prohibits the use of ChatGPT and other AI generated texts. AI derived texts are easy to detect, lack specificity, and do not produce the kind of academic writing that will result in credit for the assignment. Write essays in your own language while actively engaging with the terminology and concepts that have been presented in class. Describing your understanding of this music in your own words is a critical exercise in the learning process.

Quizzes

Quizzes will be given for Learning Modules 1 -10 and are taken at home the day before class. Quizzes are timed at 15 minutes and you only have one attempt. A purpose of the quizzes (in addition to verifying your reading and listening) is to ensure you're prepared to discuss the material prior to class lectures and discussions.

Tests

Tests will be taken in Learning Modules 3, 6, 8 & 10. These can be found in Canvas under the "Assignments" or "Quizzes" tab. Students will be given 45 minutes to complete tests and all tests will take place in class. You must bring earbuds or headphones to hear listening examples. Test questions consist of quiz questions, so if you do well on the quizzes, you will do well on the tests! The tests will also include 1 essay question based on the material covered in the textbook and/or in class discussions.

World Music Concert Report

Students are required to attend at least one musical performance that falls under the category of world music. UF has some fantastic world music ensembles that include the following:

- ◆ UF African Choir (Pazeni Sauti)
- ◆ UF Afropop Ensemble
- ◆ UF Brazilian Music Ensemble (Jacaré Brazil)
- ◆ UF Steel Drum Band
- ◆ UF West African Ensemble (Agbedidi)

*If you wish to attend a different performance, please share with me in advance to obtain approval.

After attending, you will upload a Concert Report to the Canvas course page before the last day of classes. Reports must be double-spaced, 12-point font, and clearly describe the following:

- ◆ The music that was performed, using appropriate terminology from our textbook and lectures.
- ◆ The names of the instruments used.
- ◆ The context in which it was performed (ex: was it a festival atmosphere or an end-of-the-semester concert?).
- ◆ Descriptions of the musician(s)' performance.
- ◆ Description of the audience's reception of the performance.
- ◆ You must employ descriptive writing about musical sound as has been outlined in class.

Final Creative Project

Prepare a 5-7 minute presentation (pptx, video, podcast, music video, performance, or other creative format) on any non-Western (Euro-American) classical genre of music, artist, or instrument that interests you most. Students will share their project in class on the last day of class to discuss their selection, the basic musical components, instrumentation, a brief cultural history, and applied concepts learned in class to their musical topic.

Grading Policy

This class is graded on a point system. Everyone starts with zero and can earn up to 400 points. You can figure out how you are doing at any given time during the semester by dividing your current point total by the total amount of possible points up to that part of the course. (See UF's Grading Policies for more information.)

Grade Breakdown:

- In Class Participation: 15 points
- Course Agreements: 5 points
- 12 Quizzes (10 points each): 120 points
- 10 Written Essays (10 points each): 100 points
- 4 Tests (25 points each): 100 points
- World Music Concert Report: 30 points
- Final Project: 30 Points

Total Points = 400 points

Grading Scale

A: 372-400	A-: 360-371
B+: 348-370	B: 332-347
B-: 320-331	C+: 308-319
C: 292-307	C-: 280-291
D: 240-279	F: 0 – 236

Work Completion

It is the student's responsibility to stay engaged with the course material, assignments, and class discussions and to submit all work by the assigned due dates. Please note that all due dates reflect Eastern Standard Time (EST). *Missed assignments will not be accepted unless under documented and excused circumstances.

*For late work, there is an automatic point deduction system set up in Canvas. Each late assignment will have points deducted from the overall score at a rate of 0.50 points per hour. Many of our assignments are only out of 10 points, so this deduction adds up quickly.

*Technical issues like internet connectivity problems and hardware problems are not considered an acceptable excuse for missed work, quizzes, and tests. Be sure to double check that your assignment actually uploaded to Canvas after submitting, as this is also not an acceptable excuse for late work. If you have a submission issue, take screenshots to show evidence of what occurred.

Grade of Incomplete

A grade of incomplete will only be given in the most extreme circumstances and only when a minimum of coursework remains to be completed.

Course Schedule

The following is a suggested sequence for completing weekly assignments:

- Read the weekly textbook assignments.
- Carefully listen to all the listening assignments that correspond to those readings.
- Take the quiz before coming to class.
- Come to class and participate in that day's lecture, discussion or group activity.
- Complete the weekly short essays by Wednesday night before class on Thursday.

* Disclaimer: The instructor reserves the right to amend any portion of the syllabus, course structure, or due dates as needed during the semester. This syllabus represents the instructor's current plans and objectives. These may need to change to facilitate specific classes. Such changes, communicated clearly, are not unusual and should be expected.

Attendance Policy, Class Expectations, and Make-Up Policy

Attendance for this class is mandatory!

Students are allowed 3 unexcused absences.

Any unexcused absences beyond 3 will lower the final grade by 5 points per absence.

Acceptable reasons for absence from or failure to engage in class include all UF approved absences:

Illness of the student or student's child; Title ix-related situations; Serious accidents or emergencies affecting the student, their roommates, or their family; Special curricular requirements (e.g., judging trips, field trips, professional conferences); Military obligation; Severe weather conditions that prevent class participation; Religious holidays; Participation in official university activities (e.g., music performances, athletic or academic competition); Court-imposed legal obligations

If something comes up within or outside of the aforementioned reasons, please communicate with me about the absence ASAP.

Excused absences are consistent with university policies in the undergraduate catalog (<https://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/regulations/info/attendance.aspx>Links to an external site.) and require appropriate documentation.

University Policy on Accommodating Students with Disabilities:

Students with disabilities who experience learning barriers and would like to request academic accommodations should connect with the disability Resource Center. Click here to get started with the Disability Resource Center. It is important for students to share their accommodation letter with their instructor and discuss their access needs, as early as possible in the semester.

Netiquette/Communication Courtesy:

All members of the class are expected to follow rules of common courtesy in all email messages, threaded discussions, and chats.

University of Florida Policies

Academic Integrity

The University of Florida is designated a “Research 1” University, which means that UF takes every form of scholarship very seriously and that it holds all of its students to a high standard of academic integrity. Below is a link to UF’s official honor code – please take a minute to read it.

Students are required to submit original work on all assignments – turning in anything less than original work on tests, quizzes, essays, and discussions will be considered plagiarism, i.e. passing off another person’s work as your own without properly crediting that person’s intellectual property. Instances of plagiarism will result in a 0 for that assignment and will be reported to the dean of students for further action.

You are responsible for making yourself aware of and for understanding the policies and procedures that pertain to academic integrity.

UF students are bound by The Honor Pledge which states, “We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honor and integrity by abiding by the Honor Code. On all work submitted for credit by students at the University of Florida, the following pledge is either required or implied: “On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment.” The Conduct Code specifies a number of behaviors that are in violation of this code and the possible sanctions. Click here to read the Conduct Code. If you have any questions or concerns, please consult with the instructor in this class.

Diversity

UF promotes inclusion and equity, including global learning. UF seeks to include, engage, and support a diverse group of students, faculty, and staff. This means that UF:

- Values a multiplicity of opinions and backgrounds and is dedicated to incorporating multiple voices and experiences into every aspect of its operations.
- Promotes a safe and inclusive learning environment. All students must be respectful when communicating with others during this course and must remain respectful in both language and conduct.

In-Class Recording

Students are allowed to record video or audio of class lectures. However, the purposes for which these recordings may be used are strictly controlled. The only allowable purposes are (1) for personal educational use, (2) in connection with a complaint to the university, or (3) as evidence in, or in preparation for, a criminal or civil proceeding. All other purposes are prohibited. Specifically, students may not publish recorded lectures without the written consent of the instructor. A “class lecture” is an educational presentation intended to inform or teach enrolled students about a particular subject, including any instructor-led discussions that form part of the presentation, and delivered by any instructor hired or appointed by the University, or by a guest instructor, as part of a University of Florida course. A class lecture does not include lab sessions, student presentations, clinical presentations such as patient history, academic exercises involving solely student participation, assessments (quizzes, tests, exams), field trips, private conversations between students in the class or between a student and the faculty or guest lecturer during a class session.

Publication without permission of the instructor is prohibited. To “publish” means to share, transmit, circulate, distribute, or provide access to a recording, regardless of format or medium, to another person (or persons), including but not limited to another student within the same class section. Additionally, a recording, or transcript of a recording, is considered published if it is posted on or uploaded to, in whole or in part, any media platform, including but not limited to social media, book, magazine, newspaper, leaflet, or third party note/tutoring services. A student who publishes a recording without written consent may be subject to a civil cause of action instituted by a person injured by the publication and/or discipline under UF Regulation 4.040 Student.
