Attendance

Ensure that you are familiar with the university attendance policies:

<https://catalog.ufl.edu/UGRD/academic-regulations/attendance-policies>

Good attendance and class participation are crucial to your success in this course. Attendance is mandatory for every scheduled rehearsal and performance. When you are absent from a class, you miss out on important information and experiences. More importantly, your absence will impact the other singers and the choir as a whole.

1. A tardy reduction will be assessed in the following circumstances:
  - a. The student arrives after the scheduled start time of a rehearsal
  - b. The student leaves before the scheduled end of a rehearsal
2. An absence reduction will be assessed in the following circumstances:
  - a. The student does not attend a scheduled rehearsal or performance
  - b. The student BOTH arrives after AND leaves before the scheduled start and end times of a rehearsal
  - c. The student arrives after OR leaves before the half-way point of a rehearsal
  - d. The student arrives after the scheduled start time of a performance
  - e. Other circumstances as described in this syllabus
3. To facilitate attendance recording, students are asked to place their cell phone in their designated slot on the phone rack in the front of the room, where it will remain for the duration of the rehearsal. Attendance is taken according to the cell phones seen in position at the front of the room. Photographs of the cell phone display AND the seating arrangement of the choir are taken each class meeting at 1:55p, 3:00p, and 3:50p. Please be sure your cell phone is either OFF or SILENCED. If a student is found to be operating a cell phone during class time, their daily Professional Preparation and Rehearsal Participation grades will be reduced. A student may be asked to leave the classroom and/or be dismissed from the ensemble if subsequent violations of this policy occur.
4. If a student anticipates that they will be tardy or absent from a rehearsal or performance, they should notify one of the teaching assistants via Canvas with as much notice as possible.
5. Students must check to see if any choir activities will conflict with activities of the other courses they are enrolled in. Any conflicts should be communicated to one of the teaching assistants via Canvas no later than September 9.

Excusal Policy

1. Tardies and absences will be excused per the university attendance policy regulations. If you are tardy or absent and you believe that the tardy or absence should be excused, you must notify one of the teaching assistants via Canvas. If you submit a request via any other means, it may not be read or acted upon. When appropriate, students must provide proper documentation of their tardy or absence in order for it to be considered excused.

2. Students will not schedule voice lessons, coaching, recording sessions, dress rehearsals, recitals, work, or other activities during any scheduled choir activity. These conflicts are not eligible for make-up and will not be excused.

Make-Up Work

1. Students wishing to remove grade deductions for missed rehearsal time can request make-up work from the director. The assignment of make-up work is at the director's discretion.
2. If you choose to request make-up work, your request must be submitted to one of the teaching assistants within one week of the tardy or absence.
3. Excused absences from performances must be made up via an alternative assignment as prescribed by the director. Failure to complete this assignment will result in a grade of zero for the performance and significantly reduce the student's final course grade.

Professional Preparation & Conduct

1. Students will bring their music scores and a pencil to every rehearsal. It is crucial that a student has their music during rehearsal. If a student does not have their music with them prior to the start of rehearsal, they should return to their room/apartment/vehicle to retrieve their music before reporting to rehearsal. If a student is tardy as a result, they are subject to a grade reduction.
2. Students are expected to mark all coaching from the director. If it is discovered that a student has failed to appropriately mark their score, it may result in a grade reduction for that rehearsal or performance and all subsequent rehearsals and performances until the score is marked.
3. By the third rehearsal of the semester, all music must be organized in concert-appropriate black folders. Failure to do so may result in a grade reduction.
4. Seating is an important part of singing in a choir. Placement of certain types of voices in the choral formation can sometimes make or break the overall sound of the ensemble. Seating will be assigned at the beginning of the semester, is subject to change, and must be adhered to.
5. Students are expected to be respectful of each other's and the director's time and efforts. To that effect, distractions (e.g. talking, making noises, etc.) must be kept to a minimum. Excessive distractions may result in a grade reduction being assessed and/or dismissal from the rehearsal.
6. Occasionally it is necessary for choir members to assist with logistical operations that support the choir's activities (e.g. music distribution and collection; setup/teardown of risers and acoustic shells; loading equipment, etc.) When required, the Teaching Assistants will assign singers specific duties to assist with. Care will be taken to ensure the workload is evenly distributed among all singers. If a student fails to fulfill their assigned obligation, their Professional Preparation grade will be reduced.
7. The use of cell phones and other electronic devices during class is generally prohibited. If a student requires access to a device for medical reasons, they should inform the director or teaching assistant of their need. The use of tablet devices for reading music may be permitted. However, the director retains the right to restrict or prohibit the use of tablets.
8. Concert attire must be adhered to for all performances, unless otherwise instructed. A student who is inappropriately dressed at the start of a performance might not be permitted to perform and, thus, may be considered absent from the performance.
9. Members of the ensemble serve as representatives of the University of Florida, the School of Music, and the Choral Department. As such, they are required to conduct themselves professionally at all times. Failure to do so may result in disciplinary action up to and including dismissal from the ensemble and the assessment of an "E" grade for the semester.
